Aida is an associate in our commercial real estate group, where she is developing a broad commercial real estate practice with a focus on commercial leasing.

Aida completed her J.D., at Osgoode Hall Law School. Prior to attending law school, she received her B.Sc degree from York University in Kinesiology.

Aida has a passion for advocacy and has worked at the Human Rights Legal Support Centre where she helped hundreds of clients facing discrimination in Ontario. Aida was also a mentor to first year Osgoode students and a member of Pro Bono Students Canada to help with access to justice initiatives for many clients in her community.

In addition to her passion for the law, Aida has committed herself to serving her community. For many years, she has been actively volunteering with many organizations, such as Circle of Care and North York Harvest Food Bank. As an appreciation for her dedication and commitment, she was nominated for the Ontario Volunteer Service Award and featured as the volunteer of the month in the Circle of Care provincial newsletter.

In her free time, Aida enjoys running while listening to podcasts.
