

Lloyd S.D. Fogler, K.C.

Retired Founding Partner

EMAIL

PHONE

Lloyd S.D. Fogler is one of the founding partners of Fogler, Rubinoff LLP, established in 1982 by a merger of the Siegal, Fogler and Rubinoff & Rubinoff law firms. He is now retired from the practice of law.

Lloyd received his B.Comm (Hons.) from the University of Toronto in 1954, and his LL.B. (Hons.) from Osgoode in 1958. He was appointed to the Kings's Counsel in 1970 in the Province of Ontario. Throughout his distinguished career Lloyd has held several directorial positions with organizations such as the Canada Land Company, Brampton Brick Limited, the Royal Ontario Museum, the Canadian Opera Company, the Canadian Society for the Weizmann Institute of Science and Mount Sinai Hospital.

Education & Memberships

EDUCATION

Appointed King's Counsel, 1970 Province of Ontario

Admitted to Ontario Bar, 1958

Osgoode, LL.B.(Hons.), 1958

University of Toronto, B.Comm (Hons.) 1954