Teodora is an Associate in the firm's litigation and dispute resolution group, which she joined after summering and articling with the firm.

She is developing a broad civil and commercial litigation practice. She assists on a range of matters, including debtor and creditor disputes, bankruptcy and insolvency issues, and negligence claims. Teodora appreciates the importance of understanding each client's individual needs, and provides customized services to ensure that each client's goals are accomplished effectively and efficiently. Teodora is also a Teaching Assistant at the Lincoln Alexander School of Law for the JUR100 Legal Research and Writing course.

Teodora completed her JD at the University of Western Ontario, where she was the Student Coordinator for the Dispute Resolution Centre and Vice-President of Student Affairs for the Student Legal Society. Prior to entering law school, Teodora earned her Bachelor of Science in Psychology, Neuroscience and Behaviour from McMaster University. Teodora is fluent in Serbo-Croatian and proficient in French. When she is not practicing law, her interests include reading Dan Brown novels, watching crime dramas, and organizing wine and cheese tastings for her friends.
