Navpreet recently completed her Juris Doctor at the University of Ottawa.

Prior to law school, she earned her Bachelor of Commerce (major in Law and Business Management) with Distinction from Toronto Metropolitan University. During her undergraduate studies, her interest in law was sparked through her work with the Law and Business Clinic, where she assisted entrepreneurs in emerging markets alongside lawyers from Fogler Rubinoff LLP.

At the University of Ottawa, Navpreet served as a Legislative Development Intern in the Senate of Canada, contributing to policy discussions on gender equality and human rights. She is also actively involved with her law school community as the Vice President of Events for the Punjabi Law Students' Association.

In her free time, Navpreet enjoys hot yoga, reading with her book club, and collecting miniature trinkets.
